

School of Fisheries and Ocean Sciences Lena Point Fisheries Facility Groundbreaking

April 20, 2006 - Juneau, Alaska

Chancellor Steve Jones, Senator Kim Elton, SFOS Advisory Council Chair David Policansky, Former UAF Chancellor Marshall Lind, Alaska Department of Fish & Game Commissioner McKie Campbell, and SFOS Dean Denis Wiesenburg break ground on the Lena Point Fisheries Facility on April 20, 2006 in Juneau.

The Lena Point Fisheries Facility is a 28,000 square foot building, with room for two classrooms, a teaching lab, and sixteen research laboratories, including wet labs with saltwater tanks. The facility is located at Lena Point in Juneau, Alaska.

Fisheries Division students Johnny Zutz, Lisa Kamin, and Michael Garvin.

Fisheries Director Bill Smoker, UAF Chancellor Steve Jones, UA President Mark Hamilton, Former Regent Elsa Demeksa, Lieutenant Governor Loren Leman, NOAA Alaska Fisheries Science Center Director Doug DeMaster, and SFOS Advisory Council member Arliss Sturgulewski.

Speakers

President Mark Hamilton

Lt. Governor Loren Leman

Former Regent Elsa Demeksa

Chancellor Steve Jones

SFOS Advisory Council Members Tom McCarthy, Arliss Sturgulewski, Heather McCarty, and David Policansky.

SFOS Advisory Council Members Tom McCarthy, Arliss Sturgulewski, Heather McCarty, and David Policansky.

Bill Smoker, Milo Adkison, Nicola Hillgruber, Chancellor Steve Jones, Provost Paul Reichardt, Terry Quinn, and Denis Wiesenburg.

Fisheries Director Bill Smoker

AFSC Director Doug DeMaster

SFOS AC Chair David Policansky

Dean Denis Wiesenburg

University of Alaska Fairbanks

www.sfos.uaf.edu/lenapoint